Mrs. Gothar alleges that on Feb. 2 Lillian Steinmetz, twenty-five years ed., of 517 East Eighty-third street, who says she is an actress, was committed for examination by Justice Wilde this morning in the Harlem Police Court on a charge of attempted suicide.

About midnight Officer Langdon, of the East Eighty-eighth street station, saw the woman on East Eighty-third street walking towards the river. She was only half clad.

She walked to the pier at the foet of East Eighty-third street and was about to throw herself into the water when the policeman grabbed her.

She told the policeman that if she could not drown herself she would take poison. In court this morning, however, she denied having tried to kill herself.
